

IEC Associate Information

Donna Barrett

Inclusion Alberta
DBarrett Consulting

Donna Barrett, Ed D has advocated for inclusive education throughout her career as a teacher, consultant, principal and superintendent in urban and rural school divisions. As a parent of an adult son with development disabilities, she appreciates the value of inclusive education and the challenges that parents sometimes face in accessing inclusive schooling for their son or daughter.

Donna holds a Masters in Special Education and a Doctorate in Secondary Education from the University of Alberta. Currently, she provides professional development and coaching for educators to enhance quality inclusive teaching and leadership to support learning for all students.

Interests:

- Professional development, consultation and coaching for teachers and school and division leaders
- Sharing successful practices related to inclusive education
- Links between inclusive education and school improvement

Consultation:

- Staff development to understand and implement inclusive practices at the jurisdiction, school and classroom level.
- Practical approaches to inclusive education planning and assessment of student learning

Contact: Donnabarrett27@gmail.com