

Inclusive Education Canada

Associate Information

Liz Baile

*Director of Student Services,
Yellowknife Catholic Schools (YCS)*

Biography

Liz Baile has been an educator with Yellowknife Catholic Schools in the Northwest Territories for 35 years. During this time she has held many positions in school and district administration. Liz has a master's degree in Diverse Learners from UBC and is currently working on Women's Transformational Leadership (Social Justice) out of St. Paul's/Ottawa University. Liz is the district's Self Regulation Facilitator and maintains other certifications. In 1996, she assisted in the territorial revision of the NWT Inclusive Education Directive. Liz is currently the Director of Student Services and oversees the district implementation of Jordan's Principle supports, coordination of all Inclusive Schooling services, professional development and school-based teams development. Liz is passionate about the Indigenous Ways of Knowing, TRC's Calls to Action, competency-based IEPS, well-being and collaborative team learning systems.

Interests

Universal Design for Learning, Inclusive Schooling Mentorship, IEP Observable Learning Impacts, Trauma-Informed Practices.

Consultation

Northern Inclusive Education, Social-Emotional Supports, Instructional design, professional development.

Contact

Email: liz.baile@yics.nt.ca

Projects and Publications

- Project: Program Support Teachers/Teachers as a Collaborative team. (2018- 2024+) Phase 1, 2 and 3: Lesson Study Method in Instructional Design with Dr. Leyton Schnellert, UBC Mentor.
- Project: YCS PSTs and IEPs Project (2018-2022+) Strengthening the role of PSTs and Admin on competency-based IEPs. (Lead: Shelley Moore)
- Baile, L. (2016, February 2). Turning a corner. Inclusion Canada. <https://inclusiveeducation.ca/2016/02/02/2-turning-a-corner-by-liz-baile/>
- Baile, L. (2018, March 1). Sharpening our northern inclusive schooling lens. Inclusion Canada. <https://inclusiveeducation.ca/2018/03/01/sharpening-our-northern-inclusive-schooling-lens/>